VOTING WITH A FELONY RECORD

EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER 7

For people convicted of a felony in Iowa, the right to vote is restored by the Governor upon completion of the felony sentence as defined in Executive Order Number 7. The order was signed by Governor Kim Reynolds on August 5, 2020.

KEY ELEMENTS

GUIDELINES FOR VOTING WITH A FELONY RECORD

- You must have completed confinement, probation and parole
- No paperwork or disclosure at the poll is required (Contact the NAACP or Governor's Office if there is an issue). Just register and vote.
- You are not required to pay restitution (fines, fees, etc.) in order to vote
- Executive Order 7 also restores the right to run for office
- The Order does not include felony convictions under Iowa Code 707-Homicide, but those with convictions under 707 can still apply for restoration through the Governor's office
- JURY DUTY: An order issued by the Iowa Supreme Court on February 19, 2021 restores the ability to serve on juries for Iowans who have had their voting rights restored under Executive Order 7
